ST. JOHN'S UNITED METHODIST CHURCH | VOLUME 20 | ISSUE 10 | OCTOBER 2022

THE GOOD WORD

October

October is one of those months that presents us with many opportunities to serve and be in community with our church family. I am grateful to the Reverend Kathy James, who brought to our attention the extreme need to assist the Foster Care system in York County. During Kindness Week, a team went to organize the clothes closet at Defend the Fatherless, where many Foster Care families go to receive assistance. Later that month, the Discovery Class built additional clothing racks for the Clothes Closet and sent frozen meals to further assist with this ministry. This week, Reverend James told me about a current foster family caring for a recently diagnosed child with leukemia. This family also found out they are expecting. So in keeping with our tradition of receiving a communion offering on the first Sunday of each month, on October 2nd, we will assist this family with care baskets. These baskets will include items that will be helpful to the family as they help this child through leukemia treatments. Please join me as we pray for strength and courage for this family and healing for this child.

Also, during October, many churches have a service for the Blessing of the Animals. You may recall we had one several years ago. Since that time, many in our church family have received new pets as family members. St. Francis of Assisi cared for the poor and sick and cared for animals like they were humans. In honor of the great love that St. Francis had for all God's creations, at 4:00pm on October 9th, we are hosting the "Blessing of the Animals" at Deb's Place (the picnic area). Please help us spread the word to your family and friends as we try to honor all of God's creation together. For the ones who have recently lost a precious member of your family, I would like to help you remember them with the Rainbow Bridge Poem.

The Confirmation process is beginning once again this year and I am excited that Mallory, Joe Fisher, Justin Isenhour and myself will be going on an overnight retreat to Asbury Hills, where I received my call into the ministry.

Please pray for :
Abigail Edmondson
Benjamin Edmondson
Katelyn Fisher
Owen Isenhour
CJ McDonald
Lydia Powers
Bryce Robertson

On October 23rd, we will have our 2nd annual Stewardship Fair during hospitality and Sunday School. During this time, everyone will be invited to explore the different ministry opportunities available at St. John's. We will have people available to answer questions at each table.

Then finally, on October 30th, a fun event for everyone, Trunk or Treat. Last year our goal was 30 trunks and we surpassed that goal, so this year I know we can do more than 35! Inviting your friends and neighbors to help you with your trunk can be great fun. Please refer to page 11 for more details.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone during October as we begin to live into 175 years in mission and ministry.

Shalom, Karen

Missions Committee

"So let us try to do what makes peace and helps one another." Romans 14:19 NCV

One of my daily devotions from A Woman's Garden of Faith, Hope, & Love spoke directly to me this week and I would like to share it with you.

"Opportunity for Service"

You're a special person, created by God, and He has unique work for you to do. Do you acknowledge your own uniqueness, and do you celebrate the one of-kind opportunities that God has placed before you? Hopefully so. But if you're like too many of us, you may have fallen in a trap -the trap of taking yourself and your opportunities for granted.

God created you with a surprising array of talents, and He placed you precisely where you are-at a time and place of His choosing. God has done His part by giving you life, love, blessings, and more opportunities than you can count. Your particular situation is unique and so are your opportunities for service.

And the rest is up to you.

"God has lots of folks who intend to go to work for Him some day." What He needs is more people who are willing to work for Him today." Marie T. Freeman

Our church has all kinds of opportunities for us to serve. Can you volunteer for the nursery, ushering, providing lunch for REAL Kids or snacks for the youth, bringing items for the Fort Mill Care Center or scripture snacks, helping prepare and serve a meal at the Bethel Men's Shelter? Can you cook for or offer support to a foster family? Can you decorate your car for trunk or treat?

The missions committee is sponsoring a meal for the Bethel Men's Shelter on October 7th. Contact Karen Vinson if you wish to participate.

We have another upcoming service project of sending Christmas Cards to four nursing homes. During Vespers on October 19th , if you are not carving pumpkins, there will be an opportunity for you to serve. Christmas cards will be available for you to sign, or you may want to bring your own homemade Christmas cards.

In His Service,
Karen Vinson, Missions Co-chair

BIBLE QUIZ:

In a mental review of my teaching and preaching ministry over the past 67 years, I was reminded of the time in the 1960's when I was asked to teach the Gospel of John at the Wednesday night Bible Study for a thirteen week period. It was a rewarding experience for it is true that the teacher is the chief learner in the class. Among other things, I learned about the seven I AMS of Jesus in which he taught his Disciples and all of us today who He is.

How many of the seven can you recall?

To help you, I have prepared the following:

I am the _____ of life. (John 6:35)
I am the _____ shepherd. (John 10:11)
I am the _____ of the world. (John 8:12)
I am the _____and the life. (John 11:25)
I am the _____ of the sheep. (John 10: 7)
I am the _____vine. (John 15:1)
I am the _____, the _____, and the _____. (John 14:6)

You are truly blessed to be reminded about who Jesus is.

by Rev. Bob Romanello

Thanks to all of you friendly people and dedicated Christians at St. John's for the honor you bestowed on me on September 18. It was an unexpected joy to be honored as Pastor Emeritus of St. John's.

United Women in Faith

As you read this month's article, our UWF unit will have participated in the Rock Hill District Annual meeting on Saturday, September 24, 2022, at Philadelphia UMC. Our hope is that we will again have the honor of earning the highest award with the gold seal rewarding our hard work. Of course, the work is not done for the award but for the glory of God as we try to connect and nurture women through Christian spiritual formation. We are a powerful, fearless force driven by God's love and united in sisterhood. The South Carolina UWF will have their 50th annual meeting October 21-22, 2022 at First United Methodist Church, Myrtle Beach, SC. Their theme for the event will be "Embracing Change, Sharing Grace!" Some of our ladies are planning to attend.

The month of October, Special Emphasis will be on Bethlehem Center-Spartanburg. The Bethlehem Center is a Mission Institute that is in a covenant relationship with the United Methodist Women National Office. They are established as an outreach program of the Advanced Special Ministries Group of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. We welcome you to join us in supporting and nurturing the Spartanburg community through the many programs and services that they provide.

Bless His Name!
Judy L. Tilly, President

United Methodist Men

The United Methodist Men cooked and delivered hamburgers and hot dogs on September 10th to the Fort Mill Fire Department & Fort Mill Police Department as a thank you for their service to our community. Thank you to everyone who helped make that day a success.

Epworth Children's Home
Celebrating 125 Years

submitted by
Katherine Burns, Epworth Representative

David is a leader. David is a young man regarded by his peers at Epworth as someone to emulate, a friend to look up to. David is a hard worker with his mind set on a future that will lead to a career in science. David is industrious, always looking for things to do to help others. David is unfailingly polite to everyone around him.

The remarkable thing about David is that he is such an outstanding 19-year-old young man despite the difficult life that he has had. Before coming to Epworth two years ago, David had gone to eight different schools, including three different high schools, and had experienced a tumultuous family situation that resulted in a great deal of instability and stress. Many of us would have become discouraged and wary after the burdens of such a hard early life, yet David has always looked forward, with a clear eye on his future.

When David arrived at Epworth to live, he was getting ready to enter his senior year in high school. He had already been to three different secondary schools and had also been thwarted by the pandemic which had forced him to take most of his classes online. As a result, he began his senior year of high school behind in the number of credits he would need to graduate on time.

David did not let this challenge overwhelm him. Working carefully with the academic counselors at Epworth and Dreher High School's guidance department, David was given the opportunity to double up on some of his classes, taking on a heavier academic load. While most high school seniors complete the majority of their requirements for graduation during their sophomore and junior years, and take an easier class load their senior year, David was working harder than ever to take on extra academic work so that he had enough credits to graduate.

His hard work was successful; David graduated from Dreher on time this past spring. This is quite an accomplishment for a young man whose life has been filled with such huge challenges. It is also an accomplishment that has not gone unrecognized at Epworth. Tameka Massey, David's case manager in Epworth's Center for Independent Living, praises David as, "someone all the other kids look up to, a young man who has learned to advocate for himself in describing what he needs to do to succeed." Ms. Massey continues to say that, "David looks for things to do to help others; he genuinely cares about his fellow residents at Epworth. He is also so polite and mannerly and sets a fine example for others."

Since graduating from high school, David has moved on to live at Epworth's Center for Independent Living, a place on campus where older youth can live more on their own and have an opportunity for support in attending college, receiving job skills training, and life skills education so that life on their own someday will be easier. David has already gotten settled in his new campus home and has a job for the summer. The Center for Independent Living staff members are also working with David to help him get his Social Security card and to help him take driver's education classes so that he can get his driver's permit before the summer ends.

This fall David will attend Midlands Technical College where he hopes to begin his study for a career in some aspect of science. Recognizing David's hard academic work at Dreher, his leadership at Epworth, and his potential for success in life, the Joy Sunday School class at Shandon United Methodist Church just awarded David a scholarship to help with his college expenses. In amazement and appreciation for this support, David said, "I was so happy that they thought I could do the work at college and be successful there. I will never forget their help."

As David prepares to begin this next important stage in his young life, he reflected back on his first days at Epworth and said, "When I got to Epworth, I felt like part of a family, a real family, for the first time, and I felt that way from the very beginning. Everybody made me feel so comfortable from the start and I knew everybody was there to help me."

To the St. John's Family,

Thank you so much for the gift card and the prayers. I used the money to buy zip-up notebooks for two students who needed them but couldn't afford them. They were very appreciative and I told them where the gifts came from. Most of all, thank you for the prayers. The past few years in the classroom have been very challenging and your prayers mean so much.

Thank you,
Amy Bartholomew
