Welcome to 2026!

Welcome to January 2026! As we begin a new year, we have so much to be thankful for. Each year, through the work of our Lay Leadership Committee, individuals are selected to serve in key areas of ministry and leadership. Today we recognize those who have completed their service in the following leadership roles:

Lise Turner, Lay Leader
R.W. Edmondson, Church Council Chair
David Harroff, Chair of Finance
Martha Jones, Chair of Stewardship
Nancy Stark, Chair of Worship
Les Spencer, Chair of Trustees
Joan Pate, Co-Chair of Connections
Steve Siebert, President of the United Methodist Men

St. John's extends heartfelt appreciation for the service and dedication you have given to our church during this season. We have truly been blessed by your commitment.

Our newly elected leadership team will begin serving on January 1, 2026:

R.W. Edmondson, Lay Leader
Justin Isenhour, Church Council Chair
Jason Creel, Chair of Finance
Melissa Morse, Chair of Stewardship
Beth & Bill Hozey, Chair of Worship
Denise Holland, Co-Chair of Connections
Tevis Vandergriff, President of the United Methodist Men
To Be Elected, Chair of Trustees

As we begin our year together, I want to invite everyone to Dreaming and Planning 2026 on Monday, January 19th, beginning at 8:30am with coffee and pastries. This day will be filled with listening, dreaming, and discerning where and how each of us can serve our church and community as we respond to the call of God on our lives. We will hear from the ministry areas of Children, Youth, Education, Worship, Care Ministry, Connections, Stewardship, and Missions to gain a fuller understanding of the scope of their ministry.

We will have multiple listening sessions where each person will have the opportunity to share their ministry goals for this year and a time to share these goals with the larger group. After lunch, we will have breakout times to meet in committees or in the ministry area or areas you would like to be involved in for 2026.

God blessed us in amazing ways in 2025 as we lived into our Mission Statement: "To be Christ to all people by living out God's call to love, serve and transform the world."

As we come together for Dreaming and Planning - and as all of our members participate, we are trusting and expecting God to show up in a big way in 2026. I hope you will join us for the meaningful day of visioning and discernment. HAPPY NEW YEAR! Shalom, Karen

THE GATHERING TABLE

We are excited to introduce The Gathering Table, a brand-new ministry designed to bring our church family closer—one shared meal at a time. Every other month, members will be placed into small groups of eight to gather around a table, share a meal, and build deeper, more meaningful connections with one another and with our church community. Each group will share the joy and responsibility of hosting, whether that means welcoming others into your home or making a reservation at a favorite local spot. No matter the setting, The Gathering Table is about creating space for laughter, stories, and genuine relationship. If you're longing for a way to feel more connected and known, this is a simple, joyful invitation to pull up a chair and belong. Sign up in the communication center or online!

WEDNESDAY MAKEOVER

Where do you find time to build relationships with other Christians? How do you fit Christian education into your already full schedule? Might I suggest you join us on Wednesday evenings for our new programming. We are trying to make the evening sort of a one-stop-shop. Here is what you need to know:

- Dinner will be served through a window running from 5:15pm to 6:30pm. The cost will remain the same.
- You are always welcome to bring your own food if you prefer.
- Small groups are open to everyone. You can come for a small group and eat elsewhere if you like.
- Small groups will meet during the 5:30pm – 7pm timeframe. Each small group will operate on its own schedule – start and end times as well as the number of weeks. Some small groups will be ongoing while others may only meet for a few weeks, and anything in between! You can join a small group at any time or change between them as you wish. We want you to receive the food your spirit needs!
- Many small group participants will be eating their dinner in the small group meeting.
- Of course, you can come for the meal and fellowship without participating in a small group, if that is what you need.
- There will be no large group meeting or worship as in the past.
- A catalog of the initial offering of small groups is available in the hallway behind the sanctuary as well as in the Fellowship Center. Additional small groups will be promoted when they are scheduled.

Beginning on January 14 we will offer the following small groups:

- “The Chosen”, viewing & discussing the show – led by Amber Boan; 6pm–7pm
- The Gospel of Matthew Bible Study – led by Nancy Rivers; 5:45pm–7pm
- Prayer Group – co-led by Lizann Rex and Pastor Karen; 5:30pm–6:30pm
- Children and Youth – led by Mallory Capps and Katherine Burns. This group will be structured such that the Music Makers will meet during the small group time while other participants are otherwise engaged; 5:30pm–6:30pm

A WORD OF THANKS!

Honestly & humbly, we thank you.

We appreciate YOU and your commitment to generously giving your time, talent, and treasure to our church in 2025.

Your generosity of spirit and encouragement have greatly impacted our church; from our youth serving in our Salkehatchie community for those in dire need of home repairs, to the return of our Pumpkin Patch, which not only raises funds, but helps us take steps to be an outward-facing church.

We look forward to our ministry's growth and impact each year, but more than anything, we look forward to doing this with you, the people in our faith community. You have prayed for our church, and you have given to our church from your spiritual gifts. For that, we are thankful for each of you every day of the year!

BIBLE QUIZ:

by Rev. Bob Romanello

In Matthew 2: 1-12, we learn of an event that would be a surprise to many people. Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea and gentile wise men followed a star to Jerusalem and asked, “Where is he that is born King of the Jews?” The great truth is God was letting the world know that salvation was coming to both Jew and Gentile. Paul later explained it in Romans 1:16-17.

My question is, “What did the gentile wise men do when the star stopped over the house where Mary and Joseph and Jesus were?” (Matt 2: 10-11)

They _____ with _____ great joy, and when they were come into the _____ they saw the _____ child with _____ his mother, and _____ and worshipped him and presented him _____.

We, like the millions of people since God sent Jesus with the matchless gift of salvation, have opportunity to rejoice with exceeding great joy now and throughout the new year and years to come. Believe it and do it.

Word Bank: rejoiced, exceeding, fell, down, house, young, gifts, Mary

JANUARY SPOTLIGHT

WASHINGS OF HOPE

Years ago, during a lunch conversation, Debi Edmondson and Karen Vinson dreamed up a simple but powerful way to serve others. Aware of how expensive laundry detergent can be, they wanted to help make this everyday necessity more affordable for those in need. When the 2019 Confirmation Class began looking for a service project, they embraced this idea as a meaningful way to serve their community. One evening was spent sharing Chinese food and assembling detergent kits, which were later delivered to the laundromat near Walmart. What a blessing to others and a lasting legacy of love and service.

A baby as a symbol of the New Year has origins that lie in ancient Greece. The Greek god Dionysus was the god of fertility, wine, festivity, and revelry. This god was frequently depicted as a baby born at the end of the calendar year.

In the United States, this symbolizing of a New Year as a baby has been popular in holiday imagery since the beginning of the 20th century, thanks to the Saturday Evening Post.

The Apostle Paul and other New Testament authors used the imagery of a baby and its need for milk to depict new Christians as well as those who had yet to grow in their faith. Consider the following passages:

1 PETER 2: 1-3

1 Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind. 2 Like newborn babies, crave spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation, 3 now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.

1 CORINTHIANS 3: 1-2

1 Brothers and sisters, I could not address you as people who live by the Spirit but as people who are still worldly – mere infants in Christ. 2 I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready for it. Indeed, you are still not ready.

HEBREWS 5: 11-14

11 We have much to say about this, but it is hard to make it clear to you because you no longer try to understand. 12 In fact, though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God's word all over again. You need milk, not solid food! 13 Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is not acquainted with the teaching of righteousness. 14 But solid food is for the mature, who by constant use have trained themselves to distinguish good from evil.

John Wesley believed a Christian should always be working toward perfection. He instituted Sunday Schools and urged Methodists to utilize four sources to guide them in the faith:

1. scripture
2. tradition
3. reason
4. experience

We are to move on to perfection, not remain stagnant in our faith, or even worse we should not backslide! How do we do this? One way is to participate in the programs St. John's is offering. We of course have Sunday School and book studies, but we will be offering more ways to grow spiritually.

Key among plans for the 2026 year is our revised programming on Wednesday evenings which will feature several small groups. (See the Wednesday Makeover article in this newsletter.) In addition, we plan to offer more studies throughout the year. If you would like a particular study or topic covered, please, let me know. Nancy Rivers, nriversnc@gmail.com

Epworth Children's Home

Katherine Burns, Epworth Representative

Answered Prayers

Lowcountry resident Qwan Butler, 46, grew up in a large extended family and knew from an early age that she wanted children. In 2020, after moving to a larger home, she applied to become a foster parent with Epworth.

Soon after the first foster child placed in Qwan's home was reunited with her birth family, Epworth placed a playful and affectionate 5-year-old named Brianna with her. Qwan fell in love with Brianna almost from the start

"She fit right in," she said. "She seemed instantly comfortable, which was unique."

Qwan loved spending time with Brianna, playing with dolls, painting, and playing outside. When Qwan's relatives met Brianna for the first time, they all remarked how much Brianna looked like Qwan had as a child. As soon as she learned that Brianna had become available for adoption, Qwan started the pre-adoption process. To be approved, applicants must submit a great deal of paperwork, pass background clearances, and sit for in-person interviews. While Qwan was taking the steps needed to qualify, Brianna was sent to a foster family who had already been approved for pre-adoption.

Qwan missed Brianna intensely. She prayed daily, asking God to take care of Brianna and send her the child she was meant to have.

Three months to the day after Brianna left, Qwan received the answer she was looking for. The adoptive family had determined that Brianna was not a good fit for them. Qwan rejoiced when the little girl was returned to her. She reactivated her application to adopt and was approved. A court procedure made everything final.

For the next year, Qwan took a break from fostering to give Brianna her entire attention and time. Her mom, Gail, who lives with Qwan, cared for Brianna while Qwan worked each day.

Three years later, Qwan started taking in respite (short-term) foster placements and was asked to care for a 3-month-old infant. The baby, it turns out, was Brianna's biological sister. Her name is Ariella.

By then 8 years old, Brianna loved holding and bottle feeding the baby. Qwan did not tell Brianna right away that the infant was her sister, because she didn't want to cause her distress when Ariella was returned to her birth family. She took lots of photos, knowing that the baby might not be with them for long.

"Brianna was such a good big sister from the start," Qwan said. "She was very protective, coming into my room at night to make sure I was awake whenever the baby started to cry."

Within months, Qwan learned that Ariella, too, had been freed for adoption. She applied immediately. On court day, Qwan was so anxious that Charleston traffic might cause her to be late, she left her home hours early. But Qwan's court procedure went smoothly and her application to adopt Ariella was approved.

Today, as the forever mom to two beautiful little girls, Qwan says her home life is lively, fun, and full of gratitude and love.

"There were some bumps along the way, mostly to do with navigating the foster care and adoption system, but I would tell anyone interested in fostering or adopting that the rewards greatly outweigh any difficulties," Qwan said.

She said Epworth did a wonderful job advocating for her and the children and helping her resolve any issues that came up.

"I always knew they were in my corner," she said.
